

Te Whatu Ora - Waitaha, Canterbury is committed to the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi and the overarching objectives of the New Zealand health and disability strategies.

Position Title:	Physiotherapist (Non Rotational)
Reports to:	Christchurch Campus: Allied Health Clinical Manager, Physiotherapy and Allied Health Team Leader, Physiotherapy, relevant cluster.
Key Relationships:	Internal: • Allied Health Clinical Manager, Physiotherapy. • Physiotherapy Staff • Clinical Staff • support services • Physiotherapy Students • University of Otago	External: • Patients/clients and their family/carers • Community support groups • Physiotherapy colleagues • General Practitioners • Rehabilitation and equipment suppliers • ACC and other funding agencies
Organisational Vision:	Te Whatu Ora – Waitaha, Canterbury’s vision is to promote, enhance and facilitate the health and wellbeing of the people of the Canterbury District.
Organisational Values & Philosophy:	Te Whatu Ora- Waitaha, Canterbury is committed to being an excellent and caring funder / provider of health and hospital services. Integral to the achieving our vision, goals and objectives of the district are the values of the organisation: • Care & respect for others • Integrity in all we do • Responsibility for outcomes
Role Purpose:	The Physiotherapist is responsible for the delivery of physiotherapeutic assessments of patients with diverse and complex conditions especially in the designated area, to develop and deliver a patient focused treatment programme. To assist with managing available resources (under delegation from the Team Leader) in order to provide the service. The key deliverables are: • To develop and enhance physiotherapy clinical knowledge and skills across a broad spectrum of the patient journey through the designated services. • To enhance and demonstrate the skills and ability to practice safely, effectively and autonomously while providing support to other Physiotherapists. • To evaluate clinical practice through reflection, audit and outcome measures in order to continually improve the physiotherapy service to patients and promote evidence-based practice.

	• Maintain patient documentation, records and accurate statistical information to reflect care provided and meet professional standards both locally and nationally. • To participate in the weekend and after hours service (on call and weekends). • Provide supervision, clinical education and training to Rotational Physiotherapists, Physiotherapy Assistants/ Allied Health Assistants, under the guidance of Team Leaders. • Provide supervision to Physiotherapy students as negotiated. • Contribute to service development and change through liaison with the team leader and clinical manager / professional lead. • Active participation in professional supervision. • Active participation in professional development activities.
Complexity:	Most challenging duties typically undertaken or most complex problems solved: • Prioritising and independently managing an acute caseload as well as supporting rotational physiotherapists to prioritise and manage their caseload. • Prioritising and coordinating an additional caseload to support and provide cover when required. • Applying knowledge and skills in a non-familiar setting • Independently managing patients presenting with acute respiratory compromise in an on call situation. • Leading, or contributing to, interdisciplinary service development or Te Whatu Ora wide initiatives. • Coordination of non-clinical duties along with clinical demand.

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES:

The Physiotherapist is responsible for:	The Physiotherapist will be successful when:
1. Delivery of responsive and high quality physiotherapy service to a designated area of work.	• A given workload is coordinated and managed safely and effectively. • Requests for support are appropriate • Responsiveness and quality of service can be demonstrated through peer review (notes audit, peer observation and reflective practice). • Cultural awareness is demonstrated in practice • Able to recognise colleagues workloads and is proactive and consistent in liaising with team to ensure wider team priorities are completed (including the team's non-clinical tasks) •
2. Active enhancement and consolidation of clinical and professional skills in their designated area of work	• Clinical and professional learning needs are identified with plans in place and demonstrated progress to achieve these plans.

	• Participation in professional development is demonstrated • Participation in clinical and professional supervision is demonstrated • Able to set and achieve personal goals to enhance clinical and professional skills in their designated area of work
3. Demonstrates developing leadership capabilities	• Evidence of supervision and development of clinical supervision skills with Rotational therapists and students • Contact with School of Physiotherapy and completion of student supervision package • Peer review or evidence of feedback from the School of Physiotherapy • Demonstrated active participation in clinical education • Reflective practice of supervision of Rotational therapists and students • Demonstrated ability to coordinate cluster in absence of Team Leader • Demonstrates developing communication skills in negotiation and conflict. • Demonstrates developing strategies to think and act strategically to support the CDHB vision and values
4. Quality Ensure a quality service is provided in your area of expertise by taking an active role in quality activities, identifying areas of improvement.	• Participation in quality improvement initiatives is demonstrated • Knowledge and demonstrated use of quality tools is demonstrated
5. Health and Safety Maintaining a high quality, safe and secure work environment by following relevant Canterbury DHB and divisional policies, protocols and standards	• Participation in health and safety in the workplace occurs • Safe work practice is carried out • Safe use and maintenance of equipment occurs • Accidents are reported • Hazards are identified controlled and monitored • Emergency procedures are known • Advice in safe work practice is sought from your manager if required • Departmental mandatory training is completed

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Qualifications & Experience (indicate years of experience required and level of learning)
Essential	Desirable

• A NZ Registered Physiotherapist • Current practicing certificate • Excellent time management and organisation skills • Ability to work under pressure • Initiative and the ability to work unsupervised • Excellent communication skills, written and verbal • Flexibility and adaptability • Understanding of the requirements for patient confidentiality • Ability to work collaboratively in a team both physiotherapy and multidisciplinary	• 5 years clinical experience with at least one of those years in the area of speciality • Completion of core rotation programme or equivalent • Research experience • Computer skills (MS Office)
--	---

The intent of this position description is to provide a representative summary of the major duties and responsibilities performed in this job classification. Employees may be requested to perform job related tasks other than those specified.