

May 2024

Te Whatu Ora – Waitaha, Canterbury is committed to the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi and the overarching objectives of the New Zealand health and disability strategies.

Position Title:	Physiotherapist – Casual
Reports to:	Christchurch Campus: Allied Health Clinical Manager, Physiotherapy
Key Relationships:	Internal: · Allied Health Clinical Manager, Physiotherapy. · Allied Health Team Leader, Physiotherapy · Physiotherapy Staff · Allied Health Assistant · CDHB Clinical Staff · CDHB support services · Physiotherapy Students	External: Patients/clients and their family/carers Community support groups Physiotherapy colleagues General Practitioners Rehabilitation and equipment suppliers ACC and other funding agencies
	· University of Otago
Organisational Vision:	Te Whatu Ora – Waitaha, Canterbury's vision is to promote, enhance and facilitate the health and wellbeing of the people of the Canterbury District.
Organisational Values & Philosophy:	Te Whatu Ora – Waitaha, Canterbury is committed to being an excellent and caring funder / provider of health and hospital services. Integral to the achieving our vision, goals and objectives of the district are the values of the organisation: • Care & respect for others • Integrity in all we do • Responsibility for outcomes
Role Purpose:	 The Physiotherapist (Casual) is responsible for the delivery of physiotherapeutic assessments of patients with diverse and complex conditions to develop and deliver a patient focused treatment programme. To assist with managing available resources (under delegation from the Team Leader) in order to provide the service. The key deliverables are: To develop and enhance physiotherapy clinical knowledge and skills across a broad spectrum of the patient journey through the designated services. To enhance and demonstrate the skills and ability to practice safely, effectively and autonomously while providing support to other Physiotherapists. To evaluate clinical practice through reflection, audit and outcome measures in order to continually improve the physiotherapy service to patients and promote evidence based practice.

	 Maintain patient documentation, records and accurate statistical information to reflect care provided and meet professional standards both locally and nationally. To participate in the weekend and after hours service (on call and weekends) as negotiated.
	 Provide supervision, clinical education and training to Rotational Physiotherapists, Allied Health Assistants, under the guidance of Team Leaders.
	 Provide supervision to Physiotherapy students as negotiated.
	 Contribute to service development and change through liaison with the Team Leader and Clinical Manager / professional lead.
	 Active participation in professional supervision.
	 Active participation in professional development activities.
Complexity	Most challenging duties typically undertaken or most complex problems solved:
Complexity:	1
Complexity:	1
Complexity:	 Prioritising and independently managing an acute caseload as well as supporting Rotational Physiotherapists to prioritise and manage
Сопрієхіту:	 Prioritising and independently managing an acute caseload as well as supporting Rotational Physiotherapists to prioritise and manage their caseload. Prioritising and coordinating an additional caseload to support and
Complexity:	 Prioritising and independently managing an acute caseload as well as supporting Rotational Physiotherapists to prioritise and manage their caseload. Prioritising and coordinating an additional caseload to support and provide cover when required.
Сопрієхіту:	 Prioritising and independently managing an acute caseload as well as supporting Rotational Physiotherapists to prioritise and manage their caseload. Prioritising and coordinating an additional caseload to support and provide cover when required. Applying knowledge and skills in a non-familiar setting Independently managing patients presenting with acute respiratory

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES:

The Physiotherapist (Casual) is responsible for:	The Physiotherapist (Casual) will be successful when:
Delivery of responsive and high quality physiotherapy service to a designated area of work.	 A given workload is coordinated and managed safely and effectively. Requests for support are appropriate Responsiveness and quality of service can be demonstrated through peer review (notes audit, peer observation and reflective practice). Cultural awareness is demonstrated in practice Able to recognise colleagues workloads and is proactive and consistent in liaising with team to ensure wider team priorities are completed (including the team's non-clinical tasks)
Active enhancement and consolidation of clinical and professional skills in their designated area of work	 Clinical and professional learning needs are identified with plans in place and demonstrated progress to achieve these plans. Participation in professional development is demonstrated Participation in clinical and professional supervision is demonstrated

	Able to set and achieve personal goals to enhance clinical and professional skills in their designated area of work
3. Demonstrates developing leadership capabilities	 Evidence of supervision and development of clinical supervision skills with rotational therapists and students Completion of student supervision package, as required. Peer review or evidence of feedback from the School of Physiotherapy as required Demonstrated active participation in clinical education Reflective practice of supervision of rotational therapists and students Demonstrates developing communication skills in negotiation and conflict. Demonstrates developing strategies to think and act strategically to support the Te Whatu Ora Waitaha, Canterbury's vision and values
4. Quality Ensure a quality service is provided in your area of expertise by taking an active role in quality activities, identifying areas of improvement.	 Participation in quality improvement initiatives is demonstrated Knowledge and demonstrated use of quality tools is demonstrated
5. Health and Safety Maintaining a high quality, safe and secure work environment by following relevant Canterbury DHB and divisional policies, protocols and standards	 Participation in health and safety in the workplace occurs Safe work practice is carried out Safe use and maintenance of equipment occurs Accidents are reported Hazards are identified controlled and monitored Emergency procedures are known Advice in safe work practice is sought from your manager if required Departmental mandatory training is completed.

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Qualifications & Experience (indicate years of experience required and level of learning)

A NZ Registered Physiotherapist Current practicing certificate Excellent time management and organisation skills Ability to work under pressure Desirable Over 2 years of clinical experience Previously involved in rotational position, or equivalent A genuine interest in a broad range of physiotherapy clinical specialties Research experience

- Initiative and the ability to work unsupervised
- Excellent communication skills, written and verbal
- Flexibility and adaptability
- Understanding of the requirements for patient confidentiality
- Ability to work collaboratively in a team both physiotherapy and multidisciplinary

Computer skills (MS Office)

The intent of this position description is to provide a representative summary of the major duties and responsibilities performed in this job classification. Employees may be requested to perform job related tasks other than those specified.