This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast is committed to the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi | Treaty of Waitangi and the objectives of all New Zealand Health and Disability strategies. This commitment prioritises meaningful engagement with Tangata Whenua at strategic and operational service levels and recognises that all staff have a responsibility to help eliminate disparities in health outcomes between Māori and non-Māori.

Position Title:	Clinical Nurse Manager- Northern Primary Care
Reports daily to:	Northern Operational Manager
Key Relationships:	 Internal: Consumers, family/whānau and carers All other Te Tai o Poutini West Coast staff Central Region leadership (i.e. Nurse Consultants, Duty Nurse Managers,) Director of Nursing Finance – Management Accountant Northern Region leadership (i.e. Operations Manager (Northern), CNMs, ACNMs, Clinical Director, Admin manager, Allied Health manager) Interprofessional team Organisation Culture & Development Hauora Māori Health Team Nurse Director (Operations) Nurse Director (Workforce) and the Workforce Development Team/Education Cluster People & Capability Planning & Funding Quality Team Colleagues and services in other Te Whatu Ora districts and regions, especially within Te Wai Pounamu 	 External: Iwi, hapu, whānau and other community stakeholders Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) and other providers of health/disability/support services Private Care Providers (i.e. aged care, general practice, home care, pharmacies) West Coast Health Māori Health and Social Service Providers
Role Purpose:	The Clinical Nurse Manager is a highly trained Registere interprofessional Integrated Family Health Service (IFHS (Buller). In conjunction with the ACNM the role is respon across the age continuum within the integrated primary health outcomes in alignment with Health New Zealand is responsible for ensuring smooth coordination of servi quality care to patients whilst keeping within budget co- requirements are adhered to and will contribute to the Coast vision to enable the model of care to become a re- Key functions of the role include: 1. Ensuring high quality care is provided within the	 b) team located in the Northern Region nsible for providing a range of holistic service care setting; enabling excellence in rural Te Tai o Poutini's vision and values. The CNI ices, and empowering staff to provide high nstraints. This role will ensure ministry Health New Zealand – Te Tai o Poutini West eality. experience and wellbeing outcomes of children, adults, and whānau within our rural communities. This includes: a. Providing culturally competent care that prioritises the needs of Māori as tangata whenua in order to achieve equity in health outcomes l determinants of health and empowering

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

Health New Zealand Te Whatu Ora

to meet changing service need
c. Demonstrating compassion and cultural competence, as well as excellent communication and interpersonal skills to advocate for the wellbeing of our people
d. Undertaking comprehensive, holistic assessments within culturally appropriate frameworks
e. Developing collaborative, holistic, documented care plans to support prevention and continuity of care
 f. Collaborating with community stakeholders and the interprofessional team to deliver care that prioritises unmet need 2. Supporting further integration of acute, community, mental health, and primary care within the IFHS by:
a. Supporting change with enthusiasm and positivity Developing strong relationships with others, including those working within the IFHS and external agencies Growing and developing own practice to enable improved access and improved health outcomes (i.e. working with standing orders, working toward Registered Nurse Prescribing, enhancing mental health knowledge and skills)
 Supporting the Northern Operational Manager with operational management, including: ensuring a positive working environment; performance; that workforce resource is matched to demand; and that safe staffing is achieved through evidence-based, transparent decision making, compliance with relevant MECAs and financial management
 Supporting a sustainable health workforce; working collaboratively with others to develop Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast's early workforce pipeline, growing the Māori workforce, recruitment and retention, and succession planning
5. Providing clinical leadership to ensure evidence-based, culturally competent, timely, and appropriate care is provided to achieve equitable health outcomes
 Serving as a change agent; supporting sustainable service changes informed by national and local strategy, and promoting integration to further embed the Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast model of care
7. Supporting service and practice development; developing processes within the service, and supporting others to achieve excellence in rural care
8. Be open to working with the wider CNM team throughout Te Tai o Poutini West Coast by attending staffing meetings etc
Most challenging duties typically undertaken or most complex problems solved:
 Effective support with performance management of staff that focusses on development of capability, working to top-of-scope, maximising delivery against key performance indicators, and fostering a positive and professional work culture Skilled, evidence-based negotiation to ensure appropriate allocation of workforce resource, as well as timely care from a range of services is provided in a cohesive way across the care continuum, with a focus on achieving equity in health outcomes for Māori Assisting to embed integration; collaborating with key relationships to implement processes that support consistent, sustainable integration Contributing to service development; developing pathways, protocols, and guidelines as well as guality initiatives to ensure ongoing improvement within the service

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

• Providing nursing care and expertise, both in direct care delivery and in support to other staff in the management of clients within the service

Health New Zealand

Te Whatu Ora

ORGANISATIONAL VISION & VALUES:

Our vision is for an integrated West Coast health system that is clinically sustainable and fiscally viable; a health system that wraps care around a person and helps them to stay well in their community.

All activities of Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast reflect the values of:

- Manaakitanga caring for others
- Whakapapa identity
- Integrity
- Respect
- Accountability
- Valuing people
- Fairness
- Whanaungatanga family and relationships
- Pono truth

He mihi

E ngā mana E ngā reo E ngā iwi o te motu Tēnei te mihi ki a koutou katoa

He whakatauki

Ko tau rourou, ko taku rourou, ka ora ai te iwi With your contribution and my contribution we will be better able to serve the people.

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES:

The CNM is responsible for:	The CNM will be successful when:
1. Professional responsibility	 Role models and reinforces team responsibility for ensuring own decisions, practice, and conduct meets the professional, ethical, and legal standards outlined in relevant legislation, codes of conduct, and organisational policy
Promoting a quality practice environment that supports the teams' abilities to provide safe, effective,	•Role models and leads adherence to all Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policies and procedures, and practice in accordance with relevant ethical frameworks ethical, and culturally competent practice.	 Identifies, discusses, documents, and manages ethical issues with clients, whānau, and the interprofessional team
Demonstrating professional, legal, and ethical	• Role models and promotes practice that is deemed by all clients and family to be culturally safe responsibilities; and cultural safety.	 Role models and promotes practice that is deemed by tangata whenua and whānau to be culturally safe and based on the principles within the Treaty of Waitangi in order to achieve equity of health outcomes for Māori
Complying with all Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policies and procedures.	• Contributes to an environment that values and prioritises the access, leadership, and needs of tangata whenua/Māori and all Pacific peoples, including the achievement of equitable health outcomes
Demonstrating evidence-	 Role models and promotes professional communication, decision-making, accountability, and autonomy based knowledge and clinical judgement.	 Role models and promotes accountability for directing, monitoring, and evaluating nursing care that is provided by nurse assistants, Enrolled Nurses, and others; and
Accepting accountability for own actions and decisions.	utilising more experienced members of the health care team to assist with problem solving and setting priorities
Escalating professional issues appropriately.	 Represents the organisation and the nursing profession positively; projecting a professional image of nursing
	• Promotes an environment that enables patient safety, independence, quality of life, and health
	 Briefs line manager and team regarding any emerging clinical issues • Refers all matters and concerns related to professional practice to line manager and relevant Executive Clinical Lead (i.e. Nurse Director Operations, Director of Nursing), including:
	 Deficiencies in quality care and professional standards Incidents related to consumers, which may affect wellbeing
	• Matters of noncompliance with Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policies and procedures Matters of unresolved staff conflict
	 Security breaches and quality standards failure
2. Management of	• Promotes: planned, effective, timely, clinical management of clients to enable:
nursing care	• Person/whānau led care
Promoting an environment	• Excellence in Maori health and disability outcomes that contributes to ongoing	• Excellence in rural health and disability outcomes

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

between services and/or units to meet chang demonstration and evaluation	•Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast vision and values of nursing competencies.	• Utilises current research and evidence-based practice to support effective, collaborative decision-making regarding the care of clients within the service. This Promoting evidence-based	decision making includes holistic: nursing knowledge in the holistic management of clinical care.	Assessment
	Diagnostic inquiry
Working with clients, family/whānau, and other	• Planning health professionals to	Interventions/treatment provide timely access to care	• Evaluation of clinical care in order to optimise outcomes.	 Promotes evidence-based, approved assessment tools to inform assessment
Role models professional communication and negotiation skills to ensure	• Promotes an organisational environment that values and prioritises the input of all consumers and their families/whānau/community; ensuring that consumers and their whānau are active and informed partners in the holistic planning and delivery of their care (with a focus on prevention and continuity) appropriate and timely care from a range of services is	 Supports the team to collaboratively identify health promotion and care management goals that are important to the client and their whānau coordinated in a cohesive way across the care continuum;	 Effectively and safely prioritises and manages care coordination embedding integration of services.	 Supports the care team to explain the rationale, preparation, nature, and anticipated effects of any tests and/or therapies to the client, their whānau, and other members of the care team. Promotes documentation of these conversations as well Promoting accurate and	as the client response to these interventions.
professional documentation and maintenance of data security at all times.	• Encourages the care team to work in partnership with the client/whānau to link into relevant Māori Health services
, Preventing, managing, and escalating matters of clinical risk appropriately.	• Ensures the client and their whānau are provided with culturally and cognitively appropriate information about: their rights, the range of treatment options available, and the effects and risks associated with these treatment options; seeking and documenting informed consent
	 Supports the care team to identify client/whānau educational needs to improve health literacy and empower wellness Provides education to clients and whānau effectively by assessing learning readiness, and evaluating existing knowledge and determinants of health that may impact on learning and utilisation of new knowledge
	 Advocates on behalf of the client, whānau, and/or team as appropriate Identifies barriers related to accessing services and client satisfaction and works with the Northern Operational Manager and interprofessional team to remove these Communicates, collaborates, and coordinates care with other health professionals to ensure best outcomes for clients and their whānau • Uses advanced nursing skills to establish and negotiate meaningful, strategic relationships with colleagues from all relevant services (internal and external Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast). Relationships are formed based on mutual, client-centred goals. Works proactively to maintain these.
	• Facilitates care planning in collaboration with the interprofessional team, including cross-sectorial team members; communicating and coordinating referrals to

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

Health New Zealand Te Whatu Ora

a between services and/or units to meet chang
	• Coordinates regular interprofessional reviews of client care in partnership with the client, their whānau, and the interprofessional team; evaluating the client's care plan to ensure it is achieving the planned, prioritised care management goals
	• Promotes that principles of care management include maintaining continuity of plan and provider
	• Ensures care is being coordinated in a timely manner to facilitate smooth transition of the client between services and along their care plan
	 Promotes restraint minimisation as per Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policy and procedure
	• Ensures all documented information is entered and compliant with Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policy
	• Ensures all collected information is stored and access protected in accordance with the Health Information Privacy Code (1994)
	 Documents in a professional, accurate, confidential, and timely manner (within 24 hours), and ensures patient/whānau involvement in decision-making is visible • Ensures all information is documented in the appropriate place (i.e. paper clinical file/electronically) to ensure effective communication and continuity of care. This includes reporting of data as required.
	 Maintains and updates risk assessment information as per organisational requirements
	• Demonstrates an ability to collaboratively prevent, escalate, and manage adverse events/crises/emergencies, including unexpected client responses and situations that may compromise the safety of the client or others
	 Acknowledges own limitations in complex situations and utilises appropriate resource people when necessary
3. Interpersonal relationships	 Establishes, maintains, and concludes therapeutic interpersonal relationships with clients and whānau
Role modelling and promoting effective	 Promotes practice in a negotiated partnership with the client and whānau (where and when possible) interpersonal skills and	Role models professional communication in all interactions relationships.	• Establishes and maintains professional relationships with key stakeholders working within Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast, and South Island; ensuring the service is well connected and informed, while also sharing a rural perspective Promotes a work environment conducive to harmonious work relationships and high staff morale Role models and promotes professional conflict resolution
	• Coordinates de-fusing and de-briefing activities within the service and outside the service (as appropriate) Promotes, leads, and supervises a 'zero-tolerance' approach to bullying Promotes the development of a culture of appreciation among staff
4. Interprofessional health care and quality improvement	• Promotes and participates in an environment that encourages collaboration between members of the health care team to facilitate and coordinate care
Supporting the interprofessional care

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need team to plan, provide, and • Role models the principles of interprofessional practice, and respects and values the evaluate the effectiveness contributions of others within the care team. Can articulate how interprofessional of care delivery. practice helps to achieve high quality, client-centred care. Supporting the wider care Coordinates multi-disciplinary team meetings and family conferences; representing team to provide safe, the nursing perspective of client needs, and enacting outcomes appropriately effective, integrated care Promotes referrals to other members of the health care team in a timely manner that is also sustainable. Promotes a nursing perspective within the care team • Prioritises own workload to free up time to support and assist others in the team 5. Supporting and facilitating the Works alongside staff to skilfully coach, guide, and mentor to support practice development of development of an individual and/or team others Promotes a practice environment that encourages learning and evidence-based Working alongside others to practice help develop their practice by: • Educates colleagues, students, and other staff according to Health New Zealand, Te sharing own knowledge and Tai o Poutini West Coast policy and procedure, and in collaboration with others experiences, preceptoring, • Ensures a quality standard of preceptorship is maintained when working alongside coaching, mentoring, and others to enhance their skills and experience guiding. Utilises contemporary teaching principles and learning models, as outlined by This includes supporting Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast and/or relevant educational body students, new graduates, and Demonstrates a willingness to support colleagues who are in their first year of new members of staff. practice, utilising the NETP and PDRP programme frameworks • Promotes de-fusing and de-briefing activities within the service and outside the service (as requested), as well as professional/clinical supervision as an important form of professional development • Empowers, motivates, and encourages others to extend their knowledge and skills; supporting each member of the team to reach their full potential, enabling quality care, and promoting retention of a satisfied workforce Human resource • Ensure necessary induction documentation and processes are completed 6. management • Supports person-centred orientation processes to be completed within the service. Supporting effective Supports team to complete relevant orientation plans and evidence/record that these management of the health care are being consistently completed. • Ensure individual personnel files/records are maintained to include information team. relevant to each staff member, such as their: work history, training, performance Maintain a satisfied, high appraisals, grievances, and employment contracts • Supports the development of training plans for individual staff and the service, performing team capable of including evidence of: current Annual Practising Certificates, orientation completion, providing high quality rural care. mandatory training, performance appraisals, professional supervision received, Collaboration with People & postgraduate qualifications, chosen career pathway/progress, succession planning Capability, with the status for fragile roles, and any credentialing achieved recruitment/appointment of • Manage performance appraisal and management processes quality staff; ensuring Health Evaluates an individual's practice using systematic processes, including: staff New Zealand Te Tai o Poutini performance appraisals, clinical audit, cross-referencing to local policy/procedure, and West Coast policies are adhered evidence-based practice to, that processes are culturally Ensures all practice concerns are addressed using an evidence-based, supportive, safe, and that relevant resources strengths-based approach (i.e. position descriptions, When required, supports the Northern Operational Manager to manage human interview questions, etc.) are resource issues, including: grievances, disciplinary action, and performance issues to utilised, standardised, and satisfactory resolutions as per Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policy maintained. and procedure, seeking assistance from People & Capability as required

Health New Zealand

Te Whatu Ora

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

between services and/or units to meet changi
 7. Resource utilisation and financial performance Promoting a sustainable work environment that is fiscally responsible. Working alongside the operational manager(s), and the Finance Team to optimise financial performance of services. Supporting the effective management of equipment resources to enable high quality care. 	 Works in collaboration with others to lead and implement strategies that encourage a sustainable pipeline of staff Collaboratively leads and manages various retention strategies to minimise staff turnover, including strategies focussed on workforce wellness/positive culture Collaboratively manages succession planning exercises to support job satisfaction and retention to Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast, as well as continuity and sustainable service delivery Encourages the retention of new staff by enabling support for them and their families to integrate into the community As required, works in partnership with the northern and central management teams to enable collective human resource management as required Alongside the Northern Operational Manager, accepts fiscal responsibility regarding allocated resources to optimise the provision of high quality, cost-effective, rural health care With guidance from the Northern Operational Manager, advises and provides direction on best use of resources to meet the service's strategic direction and commitments contained in Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast Annual Plan Supports budget and forecasting activities, specifically around resourcing and expenditure within the service. Works alongside the Northern Operational Manager to ensure accurate budgeting of resource within the service. Assists to provide direction regarding capital expenditure within the service, as well as new investments (i.e. technologies) Ensures effective and sustainable rostering of the workforce; ensuring adherence to the principles of relevant MECAs, and budgets Assists the Northern Operational Manager to manage staff leave within the service Ensures equipment is maintained in a serviceable and cost-efficient manner, and that planning is undertaken for replacement as necessary Supports the efficient use and ordering of centralised supplies to ensure ad
8. Change management Utilising the principles of evidence-based change management and the stages of change acceptance to support and coach the health care to team to positively adapt to an evolving environment.	 Confirm/authorise the accuracy of timesheets The CNM will manage all aspects of change management within the service Manages and promotes change positively to enable successful change processes that are people-centred and result in demonstrable improvements to quality care Supports the team to transition to new ways of working informed by service need and evidence-based practice Utilises evidence-based change management principles to lead, guide, and support staff to make key changes required to implement an integrated health service model of care in collaboration with relevant leadership
9.Own competence and professional development	 Maintains organisational requirements around mandatory training and other professional development requirements relevant to role
Maintaining competence according to the Nursing Council of New Zealand's competencies for Registered Nurses.	 Undertakes professional development activities as approved/requested by line manager, to keep abreast of current trends and issues in nursing Participates in own annual competence/performance review, with feedback utilised proactively as an opportunity for professional growth
Demonstrating a personal commitment to maintaining requirements of continuing competence, including professional development hours.	 Maintains ongoing education at least to the level required to maintain own Annual Practising Certificate Notifies line manager of any changes to scope/conditions of practise

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

between services and/or units to meet changi Participates in regular peer review
	 Participates in regular clinical/professional supervision to facilitate reflection and growth for self and others Holds and promotes relevant professional portfolios (i.e. PDRP and Takarangi Cultural Competency)
10. Honouring diversity and challenging inequity	• Role models culturally safe practice that reflects principles found in the Treaty of Waitangi, Tikanga Best Practice Guidelines, and Takarangi Cultural Competency
Demonstrating commitment to Treaty of Waitangi principles when working with tangata	 Framework Recognises Māori as tangata whenua and works in collaboration with others to develop strategies aimed at achieving equity for Māori within the service whaiora and whānau. Consistently demonstrating	 Consistently demonstrates awareness and sensitivity of cultural differences when working with consumers and their families/whānau, and when working with clinical and non-clinical colleagues across, Health New Zealand Te Tai o Poutini West Coast awareness and sensitivity of cultural differences when working with clients and their	• Consistently respects the spiritual beliefs, sexual orientation, and cultural practises of others, including colleagues
whanau, and when working with clinical and non-clinical colleagues.	• Demonstrates care and respect for diversity in the workplace, including care and respect for internationally trained colleagues
11. Health and Safety Maintaining a high quality, safe, and secure work environment by following relevant Health New	All Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast staff are required to meet all Health & Safety requirements as described in the Health and Safety at Work Act (2015), and to observe all relevant Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast policies and procedures. This includes:
Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West	• Personal commitment to zero harm
Coast policies, protocols, and standards.	• Reporting for duty in a fit state, free from the influence of alcohol or other drugs
stanuarus.	 Ensuring personal health, safety, and wellbeing - and that of others
Actively managing risk.	 Reporting and/or investigating actual or potential hazards via the Safety1st incident reporting system
	 Assisting with responding to, and resolving, client concerns or complaints in a way that is professional and sensitive Using all protective equipment provided, as appropriate Cooperating with the monitoring of workplace hazards, including attending all relevant safety training, contributing to the maintenance of hazards registers, and complying with all safety instructions
	• Ensuring that all accidents or incidents are promptly reported to line manager(s)
	• Reporting any pain or discomfort to the line manager(s) as soon as it develops Seeking advice from the line manager(s) if unsure of any work practices Contributing to initiatives aimed at improving health, safety, and wellbeing
	• Complying with all health and safety policies when providing care in the community
	• Complying with all organisational health and safety polices including those related to: handling of instruments, storage of medicines, disposal of sharps, and any other potentially dangerous equipment or substances
12. Quality Ensuring a quality service is provided and taking an active	Every Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast staff member is responsible for ensuring a quality service is provided. This includes:
provided and taking an active

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

role in quality activities, identifying areas of	• Identifying and actioning quality improvement activities in collaboration with line manager(s) and other key stakeholders improvement.	 Working collaboratively to achieve 100% compliance with relevant service audit schedule(s), including accreditation and other legislated compliance programmes
Actively managing threats to a quality service.	• Contributing to relevant audits in collaboration with key stakeholders to evaluate clinical standards and patient outcomes in accordance with national and organisational standards. This includes actively contributing to any initiatives aimed at addressing corrective actions.
	 Supporting timely investigation and management of complaints Contributing to the development of relevant policies and procedures as required
	• Supporting colleagues and members of the interprofessional team to develop and implement ideas for practice innovations
	• Working alongside the Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast Quality Team and the Clinical Quality Improvement Team (CQIT) to implement initiatives aimed at improving the patient journey and care standards
13. Special projects and other duties	 Is a member of groups and/or committees as directed by line manager uttes	 Fulfils the role of resource person with regards to particular interest areas, as approved by line manager
	• Deputises for line manager as required
	 Receives delegations from line manager as required
14. Reporting line, base, hours of work, and work resources	Reports on a regular basis and as required to line manager
	 Negotiates all hours of work with line manager
Maintains appropriate practice hours to maintain clinical competence.	 Maintains appropriate practise hours to maintain continuing competence requirements and an Annual Practising Certificate
r	 Notifies line manager of any changes to scope/conditions of practise
	Meets monthly with line manager to review progress against key deliverables Ensures that all monthly reporting is timely and accurate

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Qualifications and Experience- Essential
New Zealand Registered Nurse with a current Annual Practising Certificate with no conditions on practise that may prevent ability to fulfil requirements of the role Relevant postgraduate qualification – minimum is a Postgraduate Certificate or working toward same Minimum 3 years' post-registration experience
Completion of, or personal commitment to undertake, cultural competency training Full 'clean' NZ driver's license and the ability to drive a manual transmission vehicle Computer literacy (i.e. Microsoft suite)

Qualifications and Experience- Desirable

• Previous experience in a senior nursing position

• Current portfolio as part of the Professional Development and Recognition Programme (PDRP)

Professional skills/attributes:

• Clinically credible, respected, and person-centred

• Demonstrates high standards in terms of personal competence and professional practice

This position description is a guide and will vary from time to time, and between services and/or units to meet changing service need

- Demonstrates cultural competence and evidence of application of the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi to provision of equitable health services
- Proven assessment and communication skills, including the ability to think critically
- Emotional intelligence
- Well-developed interpersonal and interprofessional skills
- Has an ability to consistently form therapeutic relationships with consumers and their families/whānau
- Demonstrated passion and commitment to professional development of self and others
- Ability to work autonomously, use own initiative and accept responsibility for own actions
- Flexible, adaptable, embraces change

Self-motivated

Knowledge of (but not limited to):

- Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act (2003)
- Treaty of Waitangi and its application to health
- He Ara Oranga and the government's response to the NZ Mental Health Inquiry
- He Korowai Oranga/Māori Health Strategy (2014)
- New Zealand Health Strategy (2023)
- Compulsory Assessment and Treatment Act (1992)
- Misuse of Drugs Act (1975) and Regulations
- Nursing Council New Zealand Code of Conduct (2012)
- Health and Disability Act

 Health and Disability Commissioner (Code of Health and Disability Services Consumer's Rights) Regulations (1996)

Privacy Act (2020) and Health Information Privacy Code (2020)

Health and Safety in Employment Act (2015)

The intent of this position description is to provide a representative summary of the major duties and responsibilities performed in this job classification. Employees may be requested to perform job related tasks other than those specified.

Signed on behalf of Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast

I accept the terms and conditions as outlined in this

Name

Position _____

Date

Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast Position Description

Name

Clinical Nurse Manager

Date:

Health New Zealand, Te Tai o Poutini West Coast

Health New Zealand Te Whatu Ora