Better Health, Better Care, Every Day.

Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora is committed to providing high-quality healthcare for all New Zealanders. We are focused on improving access to care, delivering better health outcomes, achieving national health targets, and ensuring the long-term sustainability of our health system.

We know that great healthcare starts with great people. That's why we are committed to building a high-performing, inclusive workplace where our people are supported to grow, contribute, and make a real difference for patients, whānau, and communities across Aotearoa.

About the role

The primary purpose of the role is to:

The Social Worker provides specialist clinical social work services that promote equitable health outcomes, enhance wellbeing, and support safe, timely patient journeys across Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora.

Working within a multidisciplinary team, the Social Worker undertakes comprehensive biopsychosocial assessments, provides evidence-informed interventions, advocates for patients and whānau, and coordinates access to health and community resources. The role is committed to whānau-centred, strengths-based, trauma-informed, and equity-led practice, with a particular focus on improving outcomes for Māori and other populations experiencing health inequities.

The Social Worker contributes to patient flow and discharge planning, supports complex decision-making, manages psychosocial risk, and works in partnership with patients, whānau, Māori Health teams, and community agencies to achieve sustainable health and wellbeing outcomes.

Key Result Area	Expected Outcomes / Performance Indicators
Assessment and engagement	Undertakes comprehensive biopsychosocial assessments that identify patient, whānau, environmental, cultural, financial, and psychosocial needs, strengths, risks, and protective factors.

	- Establishes effective therapeutic relationships with patients and whānau through culturally safe, person-centred, and trauma-informed practice. - Identifies barriers to health equity and access to services and implements interventions to address these barriers. - Identifies and responds appropriately to issues of vulnerability, abuse, neglect, family violence, mental distress, housing insecurity, substance use, and other psychosocial risks. - Completes safeguarding, risk assessment, and statutory reporting requirements in accordance with legal and organisational obligations.
Care Planning and Intervention	- Develops, implements, monitors, and reviews individualised social work intervention plans in partnership with patients, whānau, and the multidisciplinary team. - Provides psychosocial support, counselling, crisis intervention, advocacy, and practical assistance appropriate to patient needs. - Coordinates access to internal and external services to support safe discharge planning and continuity of care. - Supports patients and whānau to make informed decisions and participate actively in care planning.
Case Management and Collaboration	- Works effectively within multidisciplinary teams, contributing specialist social work knowledge to support holistic patient care. - Facilitates communication and coordination between health services, community agencies, government organisations, and whānau. - Maintains effective partnerships with key stakeholders to support positive patient outcomes. - Escalates complex clinical, ethical, and risk-related concerns appropriately.

Key Result Area	Expected Outcomes / Performance Indicators
Access and Outcomes	- Supports efforts to improve access to services and achieve better outcomes for the communities we serve. - Uses evidence and insights to identify barriers and opportunities for improvement. - Contributes to inclusive, responsive, and effective service delivery.
Te Tiriti o Waitangi	- Demonstrates a commitment to understanding and applying Te Tiriti o Waitangi in a practical and appropriate way. - Supports initiatives that improve outcomes for Māori and strengthen relationships with Māori partners and stakeholders. - Contributes to an inclusive workplace that values diversity and supports the attraction, development and retention of Māori employees.

Health & safety	- Exercises leadership and due diligence in Health and Safety matters and ensures the successful implementation of Health and Safety strategy and initiatives. - Takes all reasonably practicable steps to eliminate and mitigate risks and hazards in the workplace that could cause harm, placing employee, contractor and others' health, safety, and wellbeing centrally, alongside high-quality patient outcomes. - Leads, champions, and promotes continual improvement in health and wellbeing to create a healthy and safe culture.
Compliance and Risk	- Takes responsibility to ensure appropriate risk reporting, management and mitigation activities are in place. - Ensures compliance with all relevant statutory, safety and regulatory requirements applicable to the Business Unit. - Understands, and operates within, the financial & operational delegations of their role, ensuring peers and team members are also similarly aware.

- Maintains registration and practice standards required by the Social Workers Registration Board.
- Participates in professional supervision, continuing professional development, and reflective practice.
- Maintains accurate, timely, and legally compliant clinical documentation.
- Contributes to service quality improvement, research, and evidence-informed practice initiatives.
